

DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

I _____ (first name, surname)
declare and confirm with my signature, that my child

_____ (first name, surname)

with the start number _____ has undergone a sports-medical examination and has been declared as physically healthy.

The organisation committee of the Ganghoferlauf accepts no liability whatsoever for accidents or other incidents. The organizing committee and the organizing clubs disclaim any liability for accidents and all resulting damages, both to the competitor and to third parties.

The parent agrees that the data of the child can be used for advertising purposes. Photos, film recordings, etc. of the participant, which were taken in regard of the participation in the Ganghoferlauf, can be used by the organizer without any claims for compensation.

The presentations at start and result lists may contain the following personal data: First and last name, year of birth, gender, place of living, nationality, club, team. The removal of this data (except for first and last name) is upon to a written request possible and must be reported directly to the company RaceTimePro (office@racetimepro.at). Already printed/published articles/flyers and so on cannot be considered by the deletion of the footage. In case of image deletion for future promotional activities, send a message with the relevant image to region@seefeld.com.

I declare, that my child, as a participant of the Ganghoferlauf have a sufficient accident, a health and private insurance. The time is measured by transponder (without transponder no time measurement). The organisation committee hereby refers to the regulations and the data protection declaration.

The parent agrees to this with his signature.

(Signature of parent)